Summary: What if captain America had a sister? And wat if Loki was controlled when the avengers happened? I'm not English, so don't bother to correct my spelling

Sister of Captain America

_1944_

"I have to put it in the water!" yelled my am I? I'm Juliana Rogers my twin is Steve Rogers, but we don't share the same dad. He is also known as Captain America. We both have been infected with the super-soldier-serum, but he became a hero, and I became just an agent. But, back to the moment, we both were fighting The Red Skull, and our plane is falling above the artic. The only thing i could think was 'oh-o', before we hit the water. And then... nothing.

_2014_

I could feel again. I opened my eyes, and so many people were standing around me.

"Where am I?" I asked.

"your at the SHIELD-headquarters. What year is it?" asked the eye-patsh man

"1944, of course. Where is my brother? Is he OK?"

The eye-patsh man sighed.

"no, its 2014. You have been in the ice for 70 years. Your brother is in an other room with agent Coulson. He is not awake yet. So he's ok,

I guess."

I let out a breath I didn't know i was holding.

"Who are you actualy? I never got your names."

"I'm director Nick Fury of SHIELD. This is Agent Hill and this is Natasha Romanoff aka Black Widow. The others are nurses. Do you want to be a SHIELD-agent? You could work with Agent Hill and Agent Romanoff, which is special 'cause they're highly trained. You could do missions around the globe and if you want, you can be a hero."

My mouth fell open.

"I...I would be honnored sir."I stuttered.

"Oke. Here is your first mission"...

_2015_

I've been with SHIELD for 1 year. Yesterday, the tesseract has been stolen by Loki, and he took Clint with him too. If you would ask me, I would deny it, but I have a crush on Clint. Anyway, Clint was taken by Loki, who felt familiar, like I knew him, but that's imposible. I mean, I've never seen that guy but stillâ€¦

Since I've become a SHIELD agent, I've never seen my brother. I hope he's oke. At the moment, I'm on the Helicarier. It seems lijk the director is going to make a group, me included, with the name "the Avengers". It's a funny name, and there are going to be seven people in it. My hero name is ÎœÎ±Î³ÎµÎ¹Î± (you pronounce is as Mageia) which is Greek for magic, 'cause I found out that I can do that. I don't know how, I don't know why, but I can. I had to get Tony Stark: a playboy, milionair, shoul I go on? After I spoke to him and Pepper, I went back to the helicarier by teleporting (yes, I can do that), with the news that he would come later. I went outside to see Natasha and to meet Bruce Banner, aka The Hulk, and then I saw him. My brother. He was talking with Natasha and Bruce. I saw him looking over the edge because he heard the rotors of the Helicarrier. He watched how we flew up and began to walk to the exit where I stood. I went inside and changed in my uniform with my mask on so he wouldn't regonise me. My uniform is green and blue, my favorite colours, with some swirls of gold and black on it. I went to the bridge and watched how he came in. He geve Fury then some money, from which I concluded that they made a bet.

Then, out of nowhere, Agent Sitwell, who was searching for Loki, called "We got a hit, 67%. Wait crossmatch, 79%"

Al that Fury said was "Captain and ÎœÎ±Î³ÎµÎ¹Î±, your up"

I nodded, and Steve went to the place where al the suits are being kept. I went to the quinjet, Natasha followed me. I sta next o her, so I watched what was happening in Stuttgard, Germany, Since that is where Loki is. When Steve finaly came we went straight to Germany. The whole way I said nothing, afraad that Steve would regonise my voice. By the time we made it, Loki had the people kneeling and was about to fire at an elder with his staff. By the time he fired, Steve jumpen in front of the man while I sent of a spell. Then Steve began to flight with Loki, and when he was down, I sent spells. I almost had him when Tony Stark het to come with a dramatic entrance. Music plays and het blasts Loki with hes arcreactors. And then he had to make fun of the helmet by calling him Reindeer games. I could hit him on the head for it, but I didn't. We loaded him into the quinjet and we took of. Natasha was talking to Fury and asked about if Loki talked yet and Steve found it fishy that he didn't put up a rally big fight and Tony had to make fun of my brother by calling him Capsicle. Then, of course, it began to stormend imidiatly Loki began to look scared and Steve of course had to ask "what? Scared of a little lightning?"

To which Loki answered by "i'm not overly fond of what follows"

then there was a thud and Tony opened the back of the quinjet, and I saw someone who had long, blond hair, sky blue eyes and he was male! I imidiatly wanted to ask: whats with the hair?, but I didn't. He also wore a long, red cape. Tony wanted to blast him, but the guy was faster. He hit Tony with his hammer, grabbed Loki and took of.

Tony flew after him. Steve grabbed a parachute.

"Let's sit this one out cap." Tasha said.

"I don't see how i can." Steve was straping his parachute

"These guys are from legendes, they're basically gods." I called out to him

"There's only one god ma'am, and i'm prety sure he doesn't dress like that." He is still christian. He then jumped out of the quinjet. I teleported after him. When I was down, I saw the blond Guy and Tony fighting, and Loki was watching with a big grin on his face. He than began to stand up so of course I asked: "going somewhere?"

he jumped like two feet high and turned around.

"there are not many people who can sneak up on me."

"but you figured that someone would come."

"of course."

"hey!" called Steve. "we are done here, so are you coming?"

"of course. This guy wanted to sneak away, but I cought him."

"Good"

of course then the brothers began to argrue, so both me and Steve shouted simultaneously:

"stop it!"

Of course this freaked everybody out

"How the *can you talk like that?" asked Tony

"language!" we, again simultaneously, shouted

"swearpolice" said Stark

I glared at him

He gulped and said sorry over and over again.

"And you know it." I muttered

End
file.
